We entered the top league of US fund administrators after completing our acquisition of Janus Henderson Investors’ middle and back office operations.

We completed some major transactions in Europe including a global custody mandate representing $54 billion in assets from leading asset management firm Carmignac.

We celebrated our 10th anniversary in Asia, where we have developed a solid local presence and expertise, enabling us to win some of the most prestigious mandates in the region.

ClimateSeed, our voluntary carbon offsetting platform and first Social Business, is now live with 16 project developers promoting and selling carbon credits on the platform.

We are reinventing depositary banking using artificial intelligence, machine learning and natural language processing to provide our clients with a 360 degree view of their funds at the click of a button.
